Hammond Gateway Transit Development District Released for Public Review

Hybrid in-person and virtual public engagement session to present the district set for June.

CROWN POINT, IN (May 25, 2021) – The Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority (RDA) has released the draft Transit Development District (TDD) boundaries for the Hammond Gateway South Shore station. Details are available for review and comment on the RDA's new TDD-specific Web site at <https://www.nwitdd.com/hammond-gateway>.

Hard copies of the district maps and their development process are also available for viewing and comment at Hammond City Hall.

The RDA will hold a hybrid in-person and virtual public engagement session on Wednesday, June 9th at 6:00 p.m. to present the Transit Development District for the Hammond Gateway station area to the public. The in-person event will be held in the council chambers at Hammond City Hall and will observe COVID-19 protocols, including requiring masks and social distancing.

This event will be simulcast on Zoom at <https://mksk.zoom.us/j/85410730009> and the RDA's Facebook page, facebook.com/rdacatalyst. Virtual participants will be able to submit written questions during the event that will be answered in the Q&A portion of the presentation. Written questions will also be taken from in-person attendees.

About the Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority

Established in 2005 through a bipartisan effort including former Governor Mitchell E. Daniels, Congressman Peter J. Visclosky, key state legislators, and local elected officials, the RDA is quasi-governmental development entity entrusted to make public investment decisions within a regional framework for supporting catalytic infrastructure projects and inducing private sector investment. Years of successful results have made it a trusted and tested partner for growth in Northwest Indiana.
